

Opportunity for Senior Associate/Manager - UI Design

An overview of the opportunity:

We are looking out for a creative mind to join our design team.

The role is one part Visual Designer and one part Behaviorist who can focus on the functionality and overall visual elements that enhance the customer's ability to navigate within a digital product effortlessly.

A quick look at what you are expected to do:

- Manage the creative process from concept to completion
- Figure out the steps consumer will use when accessing the platform
- Shorten & streamline the steps in the process to create a better user experience
- Interpret how to implement and polish those steps through visual elements
- Define Interaction, Overall layout and Develop the creative design
- Perform revisions based on stakeholder feedback

You would be suitable for this role, if you have:

- 4 - 8 years of creative design experience
- In-depth knowledge & understanding of the balance of colors, textures and interactive elements
- Excellent Design Skills
- A great portfolio that highlights your UI design expertise
- Proficiency in using latest design tools including Sketch expertise